

The number of Crime Index offenses reported to law enforcement agencies throughout the United States declined 0.3 percent during the first 6 months of 2000 when compared to the figures reported during the same period of 1999. The violent crimes of murder, forcible rape, robbery, and aggravated assault and the property crimes of burglary, larceny-theft, and motor vehicle theft both decreased 0.3 percent.

During the first quarter of 2000, a drop of 0.2 percent in serious crime was reported when compared with the numbers reported for the same quarter of 1999. Second quarter numbers increased 0.3 percent.

Crime Index trends by population groups and by geographic regions appear in Tables 1 and 2 below.

¹ Complete arson data are not available.

² Forcible rape figures furnished by the state Uniform Crime Reporting (UCR) Program administered by the Illinois State Police were not in accordance with national UCR guidelines. Therefore, the figures are excluded from the forcible rape, Crime Index total, and Modified Crime Index total categories.

³ Due to changes in reporting practices and/or incomplete data, figures are not comparable to previous years' data.

⁴ January through June data for 1999 are not available.

Trends in all tables of this report are based on the volume of crime reported by comparable units. Agency reports which are determined to be influenced by change in reporting practices for all or specific offenses or by annexations are removed from trend tables. All 2000 figures are preliminary. Final figures and crime rates per unit of population will be published in Crime in the United States, 2000 scheduled to be released in the fall of 2001.

PLEASE NOTE

Figures used in this report are submitted voluntarily by law enforcement agencies throughout the country. Individuals using these tabulations are cautioned against drawing conclusions by making direct comparisons between cities due to the many factors which affect the amount and type of crime from place to place. Some of these factors are listed in the annual Crime in the United States. More valid use can be made of these figures by determining deviations from national averages and through comparisons with averages for cities in similar population groups (Table 1). It is important to remember that crime is a social problem and, therefore, a concern of the entire community. The efforts of law enforcement are limited to factors within its control. Data users can obtain assistance by calling 304-625-4995.

Data users are cautioned against comparisons of crime trends presented in this report and those estimated by the National Crime Victimization Survey (NCVS), administered by the Bureau of Justice Statistics. Because of differences in methodology and crime coverage, the two programs examine the Nation's crime problem from somewhat different perspectives, and their results are not strictly comparable. The definitional and procedural differences can account for many of the apparent discrepancies in results from the two programs. The Department of Justice fact sheet, "The Nation's Two Crime Measures," contains a detailed description of the NCVS and Uniform Crime Reports.
